UI Elements

UI (User Interface) elements in React Native are components that are used to create the visual and interactive aspects of a mobile application.

These components allow users to interact with the application and provide feedback on the actions they perform.

© 2022 Singapore Institute of Management Group Limited